Export Documentation

April 13, 2017

Eden Resort, Lancaster, PA

8:30 am - 4:00 pm

One Day Training Program

Does the quality of your documentation match the quality of your product? This program will help you understand how to correctly complete international shipping documents. Learn what documents you should be filling out and how to do so accurately to keep your customers, distributors and company ahead of schedule and save time.

The following topics will be covered:

Commercial Terms/INCOTERMS 2010: Background on INCOTERMS, incorporation within the international sale contract, definitions and review of Elements.

Commercial and Legal Documents: Pro forma invoice, commercial invoice, packing list, country specific documents, certificates of origin, consular documents and more.

Customs Related Exports: Immediate exportation, transportation & exportation entry, ATA carnet, TIB cancellations, and duty drawback.

Shipper's Declaration/AES Filing: Requirements for filing with AES, USPPPI and routed export transaction rules, proper preparation, exemptions, and methods of filing.

Classification under Harmonized Tariff Systems: Structure of the Schedule B, General Rules of Interpretation, numbering structure and nomenclature.

Transportation and Freight Rates: Modes of transport, inland freight, air, ocean, multi-modal, types of transport documents, coordination of documents & cargo, and certificates of insurance.
